More Ease Is Big Keynote For New Spring Dresses

Fashion excitement for spring dresses centers around slim, easy silhouettes in general and the chemise in particular.

There are countless interpretations of this newest dress style to come along in a decade. Most extreme is the all-out chemise whose only concession to fit is a gentle tapering over the hips, but which follows body lines at a discreet distance through strategically placed horizontal seams and vertical darts.

The many compromise chemises have perfectly straight backs but shaped fronts, with a half-belt, sash or some other kind of break indicating a waistline at normal or the new lower level. Still another modification is the bat-wing tied in front and rounded in back.

Can Be Belted

Semi-fitted sheaths are snug through the bust and hips, but ignore the waistline. Other versions are softened by bodice drapes at front, back or sides, or by Paris-inspired cowl backs. Some may be worn with or without a belt at the natural waistline or are loosely belted around the hips.

Many chemises have a real or simulated two-piece look, with the top part pretending to be a suit jacket, middie or overblouse and the bottom half pleated.

Prints Refresh

Blouse tops are also favored as costume components, especially in sheer fabrics. Other widely endorsed combinations involve unfitted jackets, with the hip-bone length still popular as well as the newest medium-short jackets and those waist-length or above.

Newest looking of all are tiny cape-like jackets, worn over easy-fitting sheaths.

Picture-a-Hat for After-Five

A pretty black hat is a must this summer to wear with your black dresses. For after-five occasions you'll look picture-pretty in Chesterfield's petal picture hat of black silk organza worn with a black eyelet dress by Estevez. This hat can also be worn backward in the new fisherman feeling. It retails for about $22, but you'll find pretty black hats at all prices this summer. (Style #899)

This Spring's Colors are Alive and Exciting

Call them tropic colors, call them hot, call them Tahitian or Impressionist. Whatever the name, the colors of spring's fashion palette are vibrantly alive and bubbling with excitement.

Two color families vie for the spotlight. One is orange, yellow, and red, the other blue and green.

Orange in all its shades is the darling of fashion's new color spree. In marigold, sherbert, apricot and pumpkin tones, in all possible shades between pink and lemon yellow, orange appears in everything.

Yellow, especially lemon yellow, reds and hot pinks win attention and approval.

Vivid greens, important in all fashions, are represented in a lively range.

Their cousins, the blues, find strong favor in vibrant shades of Bristol glass, ceramic tones, sea shades, and purple casts.

Not to be forgotten are the neutrals, notably navy and black, the brown to yellow beige family, and delicate pearl grey.

COME TO CHURCH FOR EASTER SERVICES

Ky. Dam Easter Service Plans Now are Complete

Final preparations have been made for the 8th annual Easter Sunrise service to be held at Kentucky Dam State Park.

The services will be held at 5:37 a.m. Sunday in the auditorium at the park. The Rev. A. H. Alexander, pastor of the Grand Rivers Methodist Church, will speak on "The Resurrection."

Other participating ministers are the Rev. Van Sled, pastor of Gilbertsville Baptist Church; the Rev. T. A. Thacker, pastor of Memorial Baptist Church of Murray; and the Rev. Harry F. McCall, pastor of the Calvert City Presbyterian Church.

Joe B. Carter will direct the choir and Miss Mary Braswell will be the accompanist.

The choir will sing "The Lord Is In His Holy Temple" (Myers); "Christ Arose (Lowry); and "For God So Loved the World." A quartet will sing "He Died But Not in Vain" and the choir and congregation will sing "Glory to His Name" and "God Be With You."

The service annually attracts residents of several Western Kentucky counties and vacationers at both state parks in Marshall County.

The service is sponsored by the Kentucky Dam Easter Sunrise Service organization.

County Soil Notes

"I knew that bottom land needed something because it stayed wet too long in the spring," John E. Filbeck of Benton route 3 was discussing a diversion we had planned above this bottom to divert the hill water around it.

This was one of the practices we planned as John and I developed a basic conservation plan for the farm.

In 1956 a pond was dug, the spillway and dam was seeded, fertilized and protected from over grazing. Although the soil is as erodible as any in Marshall County, a perfect sod was established. An acre of pine was planted on an eroded hillside several years ago. They need thinning now, but in a few years they will be big enough for post.

John has another hillside that is eroded pretty bad and its best use is for pine. This area will be set when the trees are available.

Fescue, ladino and korean are used in the pasture fields. In other fields where there is only korean and ladino, red top will be worked into the mixture.

Very soon we will be up to our necks in watershed work. Every acre of any farm is in some watershed. Watershed protection means getting every acre of soil on the farm tied down, whether it be with trees, grass or other conservation measures.

I might call the work John Filbeck is doing on his farm watershed protection because he is keeping his soil from eroding into the stream below. Others might call it good old common sense farming.

At Easter, voices are lifted in song, heads are bowed in grateful prayer. Join in the season of rejoicing... attend the Easter services in your church.

for all of you!

Sub-Teen Has Spring Style Choice This Year

Will subteens be wearing the chemise this spring? To this question, fashion's answer is a modified "Yes."
In recent seasons, the growing-up girl has won her demand for the grown-up look in clothes and grooming, with the sheath becoming one of her major fashions, and the traditional bouffant dress present in her wardrobe for variety's sake.
However, the sheath is a newer fashion for the subteen than for her older sisters. She may, designers feel, want to stay with the sheath for at least one more season, and let the chemise and its variations join bouffants as novelty and special occasion fashions.
As a result, there's a larger proportion of sheaths among the new spring styles for subteens than is seen in fashion generally. An easier fit for the sheath is evident, as designers seek to win subteen approval of the relaxed look. Middy tops with pleated skirts are another subteen approach to greater ease in fashion.
If the subteen wants to go all out for the chemise, she certainly may, for there are subteen chemises in ample variety, to be worn with or without belts.
Gentle fitting helps to make the otherwise-loose lines of the chemise flattering to budding figures. Skirts are tapered for fit across the hips, and usually, shoulder width is provided in some fashion—by puffed sleeves, for instance, or neckline and shoulder details.
Classic styles and colors for coats stand high in favor among subteens, but here again semi-fitted coats have fresh look that is certain to appeal to many. Costumes and suits for the subteen reflect fashion-wide trends, with such components as easy dresses or skirts plus bloused-back jackets, low and loosely belted longer jackets and tapered box jackets.
Farmer With Only 3 Years Work Can Get Security Pay
Many self-employed farmers in this area have been asking, "How long must I work under social security to qualify for benefits?" according to Charles Whitaker, district manager of the Paducah social security office.
In answer to this question, Whitaker stated, "A self-employed farm operator who reaches age 65, before April 1, 1958, can establish entitlement to benefits if he has social security credit for as little as two years during the three years, 1955, 1956 and 1957."
For those who reach retirement age or die on or after April 1, 1958, the required years of credit will vary from as little as three, to as much as ten years, depending upon the individual's date of birth or date of death. The Social Security Administration has a booklet, OAI-35, which contains a table by which the requirements can be determined by an individual now, or at any given time in the future. The booklet is free for the asking.
Whitaker cautioned that self-employed farmers must report and pay the self-employment tax to receive credit toward social security. "The report is part of the Federal Income Tax Return and is filed annually with the District Director (Internal Revenue By paying his self-employed tax the farmer builds social security protection for his old age, or for his family in case of his death."
Mr. and Mrs. Everett East and Mrs. John Pace of Route 6 were shoppers in Benton Saturday.

South Benton News

BY MRS. M. U. SIRESS

I have been reading some newspapers 38 years old, and sure have been enjoying them. The papers were printed in this county in 1920, and I sure did enjoy reading about what the folks were doing in those days. I enjoyed it so much, I want to pass it on to you all. Here are some of the articles I read:

Mrs. A. A. Nelson and Mrs. H. L. Griffith were hostesses to the Benton Woman's Club. Discussions were given by Mrs. W. M. Reeder, Mrs. George Smith and Mrs. Early Cross. Papers were read by Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Harry Cottrell. Others present were Mesdames J. D. Peterson, Z. Burnham, Gillard Johnson, Mrs. Joe Lovett, L. E. Wallace, Ivory Adair, B. L. Trevathan and Miss Henrietta Wood.

Miss Ola Boyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elma Boyd of Benton, was awarded $5 in gold by the Mendelssohn Music Club for the best paper on music. The award was made by Mrs. R. L. Shemwell.

Harry Peters was named Scoutmaster and August Hayden was named his assistant. All boys 12 to 14 were urged to become Boy Scouts.

The Calvert City reporter stated that Miss Ruth Dees and Evelyn Holland had spent the weekend in Birmingham with Miss Beatrice Hill. And that John Wallace was back at his post as depot operator after a trip to Florida. And that George and Brien Holland, who were in school at Calvert, had visited home folks at Birmingham during the weekend.

From Birmingham, I learned that Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Halton had moved there from Benton and were living with her father, Tom Holley. That Ernest Flier had re-entered school at Benton after a spell of the measles. And that Cliff Locker and family had visited the Frank Greenfields.

Other items from Briensburg: Mrs. Tom Holly, one of the community's best-loved ladies, had died after a lingering illness of heart disease.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Chandler had visited Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Chandler.

Miss Clemmie Wyatt had visited her sister, Mrs. Bob McWaters.

Mr. and Mrs. Rip Flier and children had visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Henton of Route 7.

The Lee Draffen family had visited Abe Pugh and family at Palma.

Charley Gordon and his sister, Nova Gordon, were sick with the measles.

Personal...

Mr. and Mrs. Rob Earl Love of Guthrie and Mrs. Frank Davis of Calvert City, Julian Bohannon and Mrs. Tom Bohannon of Paducah, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Solomon of Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Culp of Calway, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Culp of Gilbertsville, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Flier of Briensburg were among the out-of-town persons attending the Love funeral here Wednesday.

Miss Marguerite Foust and Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Alcock of Gilbertsville were visitors in Benton Monday.

Mrs. Gaudie Grace has returned to her work at the Kroger store after an absence of three weeks because of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Alley Henson spent the weekend in Nashville with his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. David Hughes.

Mrs. Clidie Wyatt of Detroit is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ott Morris in Benton.

Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me, and know my thoughts.—(Psalm 139, 23.)

When we truly surrender our lives completely to Our Heavenly Father, through His Son Jesus Christ, we will not try to hold onto or hide even the smallest evil thoughts. They cannot be hidden from Him — but He will forgive us when we are really repentant, when we really love Him.

20 YEARS AGO

From The Courier
Files of 1938-39

Way back in 1939, Benton was getting ready to open a new laundry. The laundry was owned by Mrs. Lula Gilliam and Everett Pace.

The laundry's phone number, incidentally, was 31-W.

Benton certainly has outgrown such small phone numbers. All our phone numbers now contain five numbers and two letters, just like the big cities.

Calvert City was getting ready to open a new drug store. The store was owned by Mr. and Mrs. Luther Goheen. Mr. Goheen was quitting the teaching profession (he had been principal of the Blandville school in McCracken County) to enter the business world.

The Gilbertville Baptist

Church had held a homecoming. Revs. Sam Martin and Richard Gregory of Murray and Rev. L. R. Riley of Mayfield preached at the homecoming.

A child health conference had been held at the home of Mrs. H. H. Grubbs at Vaughn's Chapel. Those present were Mrs. Clarence Freeman and daughters, Mrs. A. T. Story and daughter, Mrs. Lucille King and children, and Mrs. Grubbs and daughter.

A group of Legionnaires of Gilbertville had visited Outwood Hospital at Dawson Springs. Among those making the trip (courtesy of the I. C. Railroad) were Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Kennedy, George Dossett, Cletus Ellington, Preston Kennedy.

George Heath, Slim Crocker, Mildred Story, Reba Shadwick and also Rev. and Mrs. Steadman Bagby, Calvert City.

Benton High school was getting ready for graduation exercises. And the senior class was working on a play, "Sunshine." In the cast were Emma Jean Walker, Jane Black, Laura Belle McWaters, Mae Trevathan, Neil R. Blagg, Madeline Wyatt, John Gilliam, Bill Fiser, Edward Brandon, Mary Ethel Elkins and Kate Duke.

Valedictorian of the class was Bill Fiser. And salutatorian was Edward Brandon.

Ben F. Mitchem of the Mitchem Auto Supply Store had purchased the entire stock of the Lucas Furniture Store in Benton, and Mr. Mitchem was getting ready for a big sale of furniture.

Mr. Mitchem was moving his Auto Supply store to the Lucas store because the Chickasaw Amusement Co. was going to build a new theatre on the site of the auto store building.

There had been several deaths in the county. Those who had passed on included:

Brant N. Nichols, 62, of Palma; Mrs. George W. Lemon of Briensburg; Mrs. Dalton Salyers of Route 6; Mrs. Eliza Ivey of Mt. Moriah; Mrs. Rose Farley of Mt. Carmel; and James Nick Holley, 85.

And that's all the old-time news for this week. See you next week.

PHILLIP WOLFE MEMBER OF MURRAY RIFLE TEAM
The Murray College ROTC rifle team has won 12 of its scheduled 16 matches this year and is seeking the championship of the Kentucky-Tennessee area.

Phillip Wolfe of Benton is a member of the team. The team also ranked 18th out of 106 Second Army ROTC teams in a recent pistol match.

OWENSBORO GIRL NADED
QUEEN OF DERBY FESTIVAL
Frankfort — The 1958 Derby Festival Queen recently chosen in Louisville is Pat Travis, 19, Owensboro.

She is the daughter of Merle Travis, Kentucky born entertainer, and Mrs. Lee Edwards, Owensboro. Travis is composer of the song, "Sixteen Tons."

Miss Travis was chosen from 175 Kentucky belles vying to represent the state during Derby time. She will also represent Kentucky at the Washington Cherry Blossom Festival.

The queen will reign over the 30-day Derby Festival which begins April 12.

Mrs. James Wyatt of Route 4 was a shopper in town Saturday and while here renewed her subscription to the Courier.

Trule Wyatt and Neal Owen made a recent business visit to Pikeville, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. English of Route 6 were shoppers in Benton Friday. Mr. English has been ill for two months but is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Roberts and Peggy Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Telle and Larry Floyd Telle of Benton, also Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Adams Jr. of Louisville, and their son, William Adams, spent Saturday and Sunday in Gideon, Mo., with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Humphreys.

Mrs. Paul Gregory of Route 7 was a shopper in Benton Saturday.

Mrs. Care Davis and children, Dianne and David, spent last week in Memphis with Mrs. Davis' mother, Mrs. Elieu Collins. At that time Mrs. Davis' sister, Mrs. Lucille Davis of Coffeyville, Miss., were in Memphis in a hospital. Since their return to Benton, Dianne has been confined at home with chickenpox.

Mrs. Robert Rider underwent surgery at th Riverside Hospital in Paducah Monday of the past week.

Joe Jones has gone to Augusta, Ga., where he will take a reserve officers training school course for three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Hunt were visitors in Murray Saturday afternoon.

Spring-favored chemise lends its supple, attractive lines to a lightweight wool coat. It's collarless, with bracelet sleeves. Pullover through self belt rests lightly atop the hips. By Junior Sophisticates. A John Fredericks hat and a Hamilton watch complete the look.

Accent on Femininity

It's the era of the chemise. But all in favor of femininity are urged to be of good cheer. Whether low-waisted or no-waisted, easy fitted or unfitted, the spring '58 silhouette of the chemise and its fashion relatives is shapely rather than straight, as the supple new coats, suits, dresses and separates delightfully prove.

With the chemise as inspiration, fashion plays many variations on the major theme of the slender, relaxed look. Shorter skirts accompany the look, and gracefully simple lines get emphasis through attractive trims, newly bold colors and beautifully textured fabrics.

As for the variations, there's the chemise itself—some times a smooth flow of fabric fitted only at the hips, and sometimes with a front detailed for a fitted look and a draped, tapering back. Chemise lines are seen in coats and suits as well as dresses. Alternately, and importantly, there's the bloused look—a bloused top above a slim, easy skirt. This may be expressed through back blousing only, but all-around blousing sometimes on a curving line that's up in front, down in back, thus winning increasing approval.

Another relaxed silhouette features the overblouse—a lightly fitted, hipbone length top above, again, a slim skirt. The overblouse silhouette appears in two-piece and two-piece look dresses, in suits and separates. In the case of coats, the same effect is often created by hip-level detailing.

Oval shaping goes its graceful way in coats and suit jackets, with softly rounded backs widest at the shoulders and tapered to the hem. This is the same shape seen in chemise dresses with fitted-look fronts.

Relaxed, too, are the lines of boxy coats and slim coats—the latter often loosely belted at the hipline.

Suits make their fashion stand on a variety of easy jackets combined with simple skirts. The little jacket barely covering the waistline is a distinctive entrant. Slightly longer jackets, fitted at the hip, free-flowing from the shoulder or easily belted, are other important suit components.

In most cases, suit skirts are slim and eased with a pleat at side or back. All-around knife pleats, box pleats or gores for a gentle flare appear among the skirt looks.

Sheath and shirtwaist dresses emerge as fashion classics with this season's air and so demand a place for themselves in spring wardrobes. Both show the influence of the chemise—the sheath by frequently doffing its belt and always by displaying easier lines, the shirtwaist by exchanging its full skirt for one with restrained fullness or completely slender lines.

Costumes ignore are the order of the season. Some of the favorites are dress plus jacket, suit plus coat, skirt plus coat, skirt plus coat, and jacket and skirt plus blouse.

Buttons, pockets and bows adorn spring fashions in imaginative ways. Self-fabric trims, too, are important—such as self-fringe on neckline ties, jacket and/or skirt hems. Self-belts are often slotted through the dress, suit or coat at the hipline.

Boldness in color, design and size is a frequent characteristic of accessories to accent the simple, supple fashion silhouette, and head-to-toe color matching, with lingerie included, continues in both solids and prints.

TABLE BEAUTY

When the occasion calls for a celebration, a dinner cloth of lace or crocheted starts off the festivities in a gracious manner. Directions for making this elegant cloth of lace-like motifs in white crocheted cotton are available from the National Cotton Council, Box 9905, Memphis 12, Tenn.
